For further details on the services offered, please visit www.collegiomazza.it

3. WHEN AND HOW TO SUBMIT AN APPLICATION FOR ADMISSION

The application for accommodation can be submitted starting from May 15, 2025. To compete for the assignment of an accommodation place, you must submit your application online at <https://www.collegiomazza.it/candidatura-campofiore>

4. HOW ADMISSION WORKS

The application process requires:

- a. The registration of personal data, self-presentation elements, and information regarding your school or academic background.
- b. The uploading of the following documents:
 - For candidates enrolling in the first year of a bachelor's or single-cycle degree course:
A copy of the latest available school report card from the fifth year of high school (with grades from the first term/trimester/pentamester and, if available, the entire school year).
 - For candidates already enrolled in University:
A certificate of exams passed with the study plan; for bachelor's graduates, the corresponding degree certificate is also required (documentation issued by the university or via online certification from the university website).
 - For candidates intending to apply for the scholarships provided by the call:
A valid ISEE declaration complete with the DSU declaration in all its parts. Single-parent ISEE and DSU declarations are not accepted, and the ISEE and DSU of the household/reference parent will be requested in any case when present.

Each candidate will be contacted by phone or email and invited to an interview with the Residence staff, which may take place online or in person. Competition winners are admitted until all available accommodation places are filled.

5. EVALUATION CRITERIA AND PLACE ASSIGNMENT

For the formulation of the ranking list, points are awarded based on qualifications and following an interview with the Residence Staff. Specifically, the following are considered for the ranking:

Qualifications	Grade point average (based on the fifth-year high school report card for candidates enrolling in university for the first time) Academic average and credits (for candidates already enrolled in university)	Max. 10 points
Interview with the staff	Evaluation of motivation for study, social skills, and aptitude for group life	Max. 10 points
Duration of the requested accommodation period	Evaluation of the actual period of accommodation need	Academic year (11 months): 10 points From 5 to 10 months: 7 points From 2 to 4 months: 4 points Less than 2 months: 0 points

Eligibility for admission is conditional on reaching a minimum score of 22/30, obtained from the sum of the scores of the three evaluation elements.

Starting from June 1, 2026, the admission ranking list will be updated on the page <https://www.collegiomazza.it/residenza/campofiore/> divided into eligible winners and eligible candidates waiting for assignment.

- Candidates requesting accommodation for the entire academic year (11 months) are included among the eligible winners.
- All other candidates are included among those eligible waiting for assignment, who will be notified of any place assignment starting from September 20, 2026, until all availability is exhausted. In the event of equal scores, priority will be given to the chronological order of application submission.

6. FINANCIAL CONTRIBUTION

Upon admission, the candidate accesses all accommodation services at the all-inclusive cost of 350,00 €/month.

Admission for the entire academic year is intended for 11 months from September 1, 2026, to July 31, 2027. The monthly fee contribution to be paid by the student must be paid for 11 months even if they take possession of the accommodation place after September 1, 2026.

In the month of August, the Residence does not offer accommodation services, except in special cases to be agreed upon with the Collegio.

The monthly fee contribution paid to the Collegio by families can be deducted from tax returns. For detailed information, consult a Tax Assistance Center (CAF).

7. SCHOLARSHIPS

Il Collegio rende disponibili per l'Anno Accademico 2026/27 n. 3 Borse di Studio per i candidati ammessi da Concorso e già presenti in Residenza che ne facciano richiesta.

Candidates with a family ISEE up to €12,000.00	1 Scholarship worth €700.00
Students with a family ISEE up to €20,000.00	2 Scholarships worth €350.00

Candidates admitted with an annual accommodation contract (11 months) can request a scholarship.

The Scholarships are disbursed as a discount on the monthly fee contribution and are assigned by the Collegio to candidates presenting family situations of greater need, certified by the ISEE declaration and by the information collected during the admission interview. In the case of single-parent ISEE certifications, the ISEE of the household/reference parent will be requested when present. Notification of the scholarship beneficiaries will be given to those matching the criteria by December 2026.

8. VERIFICATION OF THE TRUTHFULNESS OF DECLARATIONS

The Collegio will exercise strict control over the declarations produced and will carry out, by any means at its disposal, including the tax register, all investigations it deems appropriate, requesting information and any verifications from the Tax Police (Polizia Tributaria), the State Financial Administration (Amministrazione Finanziaria dello Stato), Municipalities, Companies, and Land Registry Offices. The declarant forfeits the benefits obtained if the untruthfulness of the content of the declarations emerges. Untruthful declarations are punished pursuant to the Penal Code and special laws on the matter (Articles 75 and 76 of Presidential Decree no. 445 of December 28, 2000).

9. ANNUAL CONFIRMATION

Admission to the accommodation place is intended for one academic year. Confirmation for subsequent academic years will be subject to the Collegio's evaluation of the student's academic situation and the absence of disciplinary disputes relating to their presence at the Residence.

10. AN INCLUSIVE ENVIRONMENT

Collegio Mazza aims to be an inclusive environment and is therefore committed to breaking down cultural, relational, bureaucratic-administrative, physical, and architectural barriers to foster a sense of belonging, active participation, and responsible leadership for those undergoing the residential and educational experience in the various Residences. Inclusivity is based on the personalization of relationships during the reception, integration, and stay phases of the student, and on continuous listening fostered by frequent opportunities for meeting, exchange, and mutual acquaintance between the Management and the students. With this perspective in mind, candidates are invited to report any specific needs or special situations of hardship during the competition process.
